The Life You Save May Be Your Own. Flannery O'Connor . THE old woman and her daughter were sitting on their porch when Mr. Shiftlet came up their road for the first time. The old woman slid to the edge of her chair and leaned forward, shading her eyes from the piercing sunset with her hand. The daughter could not see far in front of her and continued to play with her fingers. Although the old woman lived in this desolate spot with only her daughter and she had never seen Mr. Shiftlet before ...

From what does he save them? 6. How should we view Mr. Shiftlet's actions in the final paragraphs of the story? Why does he give the boy a sermon on the sweetness of a mother's love? What motivates his prayer for a cleansing of the world? Does he lack any sense of culpability for his own actions? 7. How would you describe the tone of this story? Look closely at the descriptions of the ...
